Materials that can be used

- The image must only be 2D.
- Materials can include pencils, crayons, markers, pastels, paint.

Eligibility and entry requirements

Entrants can submit as many entries as they like. For the entry to be eligible, entrants must:

- Be from the County Wicklow area.
- Enter in the appropriate age category.
- Submit their image by no later than 5pm, Thursday, 16 May 2024. (Submissions received after the deadline will not be eligible for entry.)
- Deliver their image to Mailyn Bass, County Wicklow Partnership, Floor 3 Avoca River House, Bridgewater Centre, Arklow Y14 V277 (drop it in person or by post)
- All entries must include the entrant's full name, age category, address and the name and contact telephone number of a parent or guardian. If coming from a school, the name of the student, school and school address and phone number is sufficient. For further information on how the personal data provided will be processed, refer to the CWP Privacy Notice.
- This information MUST be on the back of their image and MUST NOT interfere with the image on the front. A sticky label or a secure a piece of paper by adhesive to the back of the image with this detail on it is recommended. If the entrant's details are visible on the front of the image (that is, so the judges could see it), the image will be disqualified from the competition.

Employees or agents of CWP and their family members CAN enter the competition as the judging of the competition will be done external to the Partnership and all entry details will be withheld from the judges.

Picking the winner and prize giving

- Winners will be chosen by judges external to CWP and entrant details will not be visible to them.
- The decision on competition winners will be made on or before 30 May 2024.
- Winners will be notified by telephone after 4pm Friday, 31 May.
- The prizes will be presented to the winners and their parent or guardian or school at a photo opportunity in CWP with a date/time/exact location of which to be arranged insofar as possible so that it is mutually convenient.
- The prize cannot be exchanged, transferred, or redeemed for cash or any other prize.
- The prize must be collected in person.

Publishing the entries

- The name of the winner will be announced at 4pm on the mall floor in Bridgewater Shopping Centre and published on CWP's social media channels and in local media, on or after Friday, 31 May 2024, World No Tobacco Day.
- By submitting an entry to the competition, entrants and their parents or guardians or school give CWP permission for the entry to be published and republished in electronic format and hard copy for purposes connected with the competition and to use in the future.
- By submitting an entry to the competition, entrants and their parents or guardians or schools give the right to use their first name for the sole purpose of identifying you as the creator of your entry.
- By submitting an entry to the competition, the winner and their parent or guardian or school agree to take part in media and PR activity for CWP for the purposes of publicising the competition. This includes, but is not limited to, press releases, photography and posts on social media.

Additional Terms and Conditions

- Entries on behalf of another person will not be accepted and joint submissions are not allowed.
- CWP takes no responsibility for entries that are lost, delayed, misdirected or incomplete or cannot be delivered or entered for any reason. Proof of delivery of the entry is not proof of receipt.
- Your entry will NOT be returned, but you can arrange to collect it before 13 June 2024 by emailing tobaccocessation@wicklowpartnership.ie. After this date, entries will be destroyed.
- CWP accepts no responsibility for any damage, loss, liability, injury or disappointment incurred or suffered by you as a result of entering the competition or accepting the prize.

By entering this competition, entrants agree to all Terms and Conditions (the rules of the competition) and consent to the processing of their personal data in line with the CWP Privacy Notice. Entries which fail to comply with these rules will be disqualified.

Please contact tobaccocessation@wicklowpartnership.ie with any queries in relation to the competition.

World No Tobacco Day Art Competition

CWP Privacy Notice

About us. County Wicklow Partnership (CWP) is a local development company dedicated to supporting individuals and communities within the county. As the host of the Community Tobacco Project, CWP aims to increase awareness of tobacco-related harm. In line with this objective, the Community Tobacco Project is hosting an art competition to mark World No Tobacco Day.

About this Privacy Notice. CWP is committed to protecting the personal data of entrants into the 'World No Tobacco Day' Art Competition. This Privacy Notice, which relates specifically to the competition, outlines why personal data is collected, how it will be used, and the rights of entrants.

In this statement, 'we' and 'our' refers to CWP, as the organisation administering the competition, and 'you' and 'your' refers to competition entrants.

Why personal data is collected and used. We collect data from entrants upon entering the competition. This data will be used solely for managing and administering the competition, including winner notification and event publicity.

Legal basis for processing personal data. We legally process your data based on the following grounds:

- Necessary for the performance of a contract. Processing is necessary to administer the competition, ensure fair competition, and contact competition winners.
- Legitimate interests of the data controller. Processing is necessary to administer the competition fairly and contact competition winners.
- Consent. The data subject has given consent to the processing of their personal data for one or more specific purposes.

Categories of personal data:

- Name: We collect names to process competition entries, contact winners, and for identifying them in publicity/promotional material as the creators of their entries.
- Age category: Age categories are collected to confirm which age group the entry belongs to for judging purposes.
- Contact details (email / phone): Contact information is collected to communicate with winners and arrange prize distribution.
- Description and photograph of the entries: Descriptions and photographs of entries are collected for judging submissions and for promotional purposes. These may be published and republished in electronic and/or hard copy format for competition-related purposes, publicity and future use.
- Photography and filming: Photographs of competition winners will be taken during prize giving and used for publicity and promotion, both electronically and online.

For entrants who are under 18 years of age. For children entering the competition, we collect the same personal data as listed above. However, before using their name, any photograph or filming for promotional/publicity purposes, explicit consent will be sought from a guardian or parent. Parents or guardians can exercise rights on behalf of their children regarding data protection by contacting us using the information provided below.

Consent. By entering the competition, you consent to the processing of your data as outlined in this notice, including the publication of names and photographs on social media platforms. Withdrawal of consent is possible at any time. Please note, however, that event-related hard copy publications distributed beyond CWP and online posts will remain accessible, making it challenging to erase, recall, or amend them after publication / distribution.

For entrants under 18, explicit consent from a guardian is required for use of their name or image.

Sharing your personal data (information). Personal data of competition winners may be shared with third-party prize providers, including on social media platforms. Entries/posts on online platforms, like Facebook or Instagram, are publicly available.

Storage and retention. Competition entries and personal data submitted will be stored securely in CWP's office until the competition concludes. On or about 13 June 2024, all competition entries will be shredded. However, photos of entries and photography related to the competition may be retained for historical, documentation, or reporting purposes. Additionally, event-related publications and online posts will remain accessible indefinitely.

Consequences of not providing necessary personal data. Non-provision of data prevents participation in the competition and disqualifies entries.

Your Rights as a data subject. You have rights to access, rectify, erase, restrict, or object to processing, and data portability. Contact CWP to exercise these rights or inquire further; Mailyn Bass 087-1500234 or tobaccocessation@wicklowpartnership.ie

Queries and complaints. These can directed to Mailyn Bass 087-1500234 or tobaccocessation@wicklowpartnership.ie

Complaining to the Data Protection Commissioner. You can also file a complaint with the Data Protection Commissioner if unsatisfied with the response you receive from CWP. Website: www.dataprotection.ie Phone: 01 765 0100/1800 437 737
