

Maynooth University
National University of Ireland Maynooth

County Wicklow Partnership

Addiction Studies Course QQI level 7

supported by the East Coast Regional Drugs and Alcohol Task Force and the SICAP Programme in County Wicklow Partnership

Starting late September 2020 in Croi Rath Naoi Community Development Project, St Brigid's Hall Rathnew.

100 hours duration through blended learning.

You must have access to internet and a computer.

This course focuses on introducing participants to current debates on addiction. On completion, participants will have become familiar with contemporary addiction theory as well as prevention and treatment strategies. Participants will have explored associated issues such as public policy, factual information on substance misuse, gender issues and community drug prevention to name but a few.

Modules:

- 1 Groupwork and Facilitation Skills/Reflective Learning
- 2 Substance Misuse and Dependence
- 3 Drug & Alcohol Misuse in Contemporary Ireland
- 4 Approaches to Prevention, Treatment & Rehabilitation

Award:

MU Certificate in Addiction Studies

Application:

Submission of Application Form by email only followed by meeting with tutors. Closing date of August 19th 2020

Contact: Mary Millett at mary_crn@wicklowpartnership.ie or Maeve Shanley at ecrdatf@gmail.com

wicklowpartnership @wicklowship

Riailtas na hÉireann
Government of Ireland

